

SWFL BASEBALL & DIAMOND CODE ANNOUNCE PARTNERSHIP, ENTER FALL AS COLORADO ROCKIES SCOUT TEAM

FLORIDA – July 22, 2024 – Southwest Florida Baseball (SWFL) and Diamond Code Baseball have entered an agreement that will see the two organizations partner beginning this fall as the Colorado Rockies Scout Team, creating a coast-to-coast operation that is designed to provide elite level players an industry leading platform to advance their playing careers with collegiate and professional opportunities.

SWFL and Diamond Code will begin joint operations starting Saturday, August 10 as they host the Rockies Scout Team's Fall Tryout & Collegiate Camp, set to take place at Florida Southwestern College (FSW) and American Baseball Academy, located in Fort Myers. 17+ colleges will be on site, as players will participate in a pro-style showcase. Additionally, players will receive the exclusive opportunity to work and interact with the college coaches in attendance, including coaches from University of Florida, UCF, FGCU, USF, FIU, Florida Southern, Nova Southeastern, Palm Beach Atlantic, Lynn University, FSW, Pasco Hernando, Polk State, South Florida State, St. Petersburg College, Webber International, New College of Florida, and University of Fort Lauderdale.

Registration must be completed online at www.SWFLbaseball.com. For additional information on the Colorado Rockies Scout Team, Fall Tryout & Collegiate Camp, contact Matt Schaeffer at schaefferm16@gmail.com.
